As an opportunity to increase, their sales cigarette manufacturers are offering innovative cigarettes such as smokeless cigarettes as an alternative to conventional cigarettes. Smokeless cigarettes do not burn the tobacco; instead heat the tobacco just enough to create a smokeless vapor that imparts the flavor of tobacco. Smokeless cigarettes are less harmful and can also help people to quit smoking altogether. For example, in 2016, Philip Morris International, the world's largest cigarette and tobacco company, launched iQOS smokeless cigarettes, which produce 90-95% less harmful chemicals than traditional cigarettes. British American Tobacco (BAT) has invested $1 billion in last 5 years for the development of smoke-free cigarettes. Rise in cigarette alternatives, use of advanced cigarette filter technologies and innovative product designs are the major trends witnessed in the global tobacco products market.

Major players in the tobacco products market include Philip Morris International Inc., Imperial Tobacco Products, Altria Group Inc., British American Tobacco Products, Japan Tobacco Products Inc., R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Products Company, Sampoerna, Gudang Garam, ITC, KT&G.
