

'RED GLORY' wins 5 awards in Los Angeles, Rome and Saint Petersburg

SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS, UNITED STATES, June 4, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The film "Red Glory" has won Best Documentary at the 2019 European International Film Festival in Saint Petersburg, Russian Federation, and Best Documentary Short at the 2019 Rome Prisma Independent Film Awards in Rome, Italy. Directed by the Maltese-American writer-director Marcelle Abela, with music by the Serbian film composer Mirko Sukovic, "Red Glory" also won two Bronze Awards in the technical categories of Best Editing and Best Music at the 2018 Independent Shorts Awards in Los Angeles, California. It won a second award for Best Music at the 2018 Top Indie Film Awards. "Red Glory," which received its New York City premiere at Cinema Village, is a short documentary about humankind's first walk on the moon with Apollo 11, NASA's first test mission of Orion for beyond low-space orbit, and Mars 1, the upcoming first manned mission to the red planet. The film includes archival footage from the European Space Agency and NASA Johnson Space Center. Motion graphics and artwork of "Red Glory" were done by Antonia Harris of ZGroup Studio, Montana. Mariella Delia was the executive producer. The final sound mix of "Red Glory," an Avinu Films production, was recorded at Two Tons of Sound in Belgrade.

Avinu Films
Avinu Films
+356 9994 7263
email us here
Visit us on social media:
Facebook
Twitter

This press release can be viewed online at: <http://www.einpresswire.com>

Disclaimer: If you have any questions regarding information in this press release please contact the company listed in the press release. Please do not contact EIN Presswire. We will be unable to assist you with your inquiry. EIN Presswire disclaims any content contained in these releases. © 1995-2019 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.