experience in networking with various stakeholders, will be beneficial to BPM as the company continues to enjoy accelerated growth.

Calvin grew up in Hong Kong and attended university in the US. He received his Bachelors (BBA) and Masters (MBA) in Business Administration from the University of Texas at Arlington, majoring in Finance and Economics. He is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), Chartered Global Management Accountant (CGMA), Certified Six Sigma Greenbelt, and Certified ISO 9001 Internal Auditor.

“We're really excited to welcome Calvin as our CFO,” says William White, founder, and CEO of BPM Microsystems. “Calvin's financial credentials and proven track record makes him a valued addition to the BPM Executive Management Team.”

Professionally, Tang has enjoyed positions in both Finance and Accounting and held key roles such as Director, Vice President, and CFO of multi-billion-dollar global companies with a diverse background: oil & gas, energy, technology solutions, healthcare, chemical manufacturing, and non-profit organizations. To help penetrate new markets and servicing customers in the Asia Pacific Rim, he led the effort in creating a subsidiary in Shanghai, China, and Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia for his former company, exercising his language skills to become their Chief Representative.

Tang will handle the full spectrum of accounting, financial reporting, cash flow management, auditing and treasury functions for his new company. “I sincerely enjoy working with all of the staff here at BPM. Not only are they friendly and easy to talk with, but they are also very open and down to earth,” says Tang.

Calvin will celebrate his 35th wedding anniversary this year, and has three adult children; the youngest recently graduated from Texas A&M in May. He and his wife enjoy going to the
