Lynnsey Perrin, President and CEO of Perrin Conferences

provider of joint plaintiff/defense litigation conferences, will host its Emerging Legal Trends in the Cannabis Industry Conference at the Grand Hyatt San Francisco on June 27, 2019. This one-day conference brings together leaders, innovators, and advocates to discuss the challenges and opportunities that face this unique industry. In-house counsel, risk managers, law firms, and insurance companies will discuss the latest impacts on this unique business.

"Perrin's Emerging Legal Trends in the Cannabis Industry Conference will provide the highest quality discussions on various topics from multiple perspectives and viewpoints," said Lynnsey Perrin, President and CEO of Perrin Conferences. "It's a must-attend conference for anyone interested or currently involved in the cannabis industry."

Panel discussions will focus on employment-related issues, insurance coverage options, industry innovations, state-of-the-art challenges, and changes within the federal landscape after the passage of the Farm Bill.

The conference co-chairs are heavily involved in developing the agenda for the conference. This year's co-chairs are:

- Kristi K. Brownson, Esq., Brownson Norby, PLLC, Minneapolis, MN
- Adam R. Dolan, Esq., Goldberg Segalla, White Plains, NY
- Kirk Miller, MBA, CRM, CIC, Vice President of Risk Management Cannabis Services, Emergent Risk Insurance Services, LLC, San Francisco, CA

Perrin Conferences is expecting approval for 6.5 - 7.8 CLE credits. Please contact Katie Milnes at kmilnes@perrinconferences.com for any questions or to submit your CE/CLE requests.
