Paracosma's Founder and CEO.*

The Magazine's profile of Paracosma highlights Paracosma's founding as an outsourced service provider and its range of Augmented and Virtual Reality (AR/VR) solutions as well as the evolution of AR/VR and its future. The feature also discusses the collaborative relationship between Paracosma and its clients and company's focus on maintaining it by providing innovative solutions that are consistently effective, cost-efficient and fast to implement.

"We are honored to be recognized for our achievements and to be selected among the 10 Best AR/VR Solution Providers", said Ken Ehrhart, the Founder and CEO of Paracosma. "We have dedicated our efforts to providing the highest quality and most advanced services at the most affordable prices."

In addition to outlining and discussing Paracosma's enterprise solutions, the feature also notes the upcoming launch of Paracosma's in-house project 'Unnamed VR'. The consumer-focused VR game, Unnamed VR, is an open-ended sandbox game where users are in a large mansion and can explore and play mini-games in each room. It also highlights Paracosma's community-focused activities such as its cofounding and sponsorship of the annual VR for Good Conference with VR Voice and founding membership in the International VR for Healthcare Association.
