

SOUTHERN HALO Lights Up The Beaches & Boardwalks With New Music Video, "Sunshine"

Cut Offs, Camaraderie & Cold Ones Make For Vibrant Viewing

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, UNITED STATES, June 7, 2019

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Southern Halo lights up the beaches and the boardwalks in their new music video, "Sunshine." The clip brings to life the perfect coastal summer with cut offs, camaraderie and cold ones - making for vibrant viewing while providing a singalong vibe.

A companion to the trio's latest MusicRow CountryBreakOut™ chart single, the "Sunshine" video was produced by Ryan Slattery (Jackson Gillies, John Jack) and filmed at Santa Rosa and Seagrove beaches in Florida for RJ Slatts Productions. The video opens with rotating ocean views and the gentle whisper of the waves in the golden sunlight of dawn, then explodes like a 4th of July fireworks display as the soundtrack begins. Flaming sunsets offset dynamic cutaways to performance imagery and casual shots of the Morris sisters at play in the sea and on the sand. The camera work is crisp and the siblings offer up enough energy to power a small city, lighting up the beaches and boardwalks as they go. The video premiered via Morning Hangover today.

Follow up singles, including "Rewind" and "Living Like That," from the group's CD, SOUTHERN HALO (2015), further bolstered the group's profile. The band has opened for Maren Morris, Phil Vassar, Deana Carter, Love and Theft, Brantley Gilbert, Eric Paslay, Tyler Farr, Parmalee, Old Dominion, American Young, Blues immortal B.B. King and legendary chanteuse Dionne Warwick, and many others. They entertained fans at CMA Music Fest 2018 and 2016, and have twice toured the U.K. The group has garnered two Top 25 MusicRow CountryBreakOut™ chart and Top 45 Billboard Indicator chart hits since the 2018 release of JUST LIKE IN THE MOVIES.
