Innovative pain relief massage tool available for sale with introductory offer

CHAMPAIGN, ILLINOIS, USA, June 8, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A brand new tool designed to help relieve pain for users is now for sale online and is available via the newly launched website, <http://www.Youlism.com>.

According to the most recent statistics reported by two of the leaders in the massage industry, Associated Bodywork and Massage Professionals (ABMP) and the American Massage Therapy Association (AMTA), more than $11 billion dollars is spent annually on massage therapy in the US alone. The founders of the YOULISM MASSAGE GUN aim to put some of that money back into the hands of the clients by offering a unique solution that can be used by anyone in their own home. Youlism.com's main product, the massage gun, is a hand held device that can be used by oneself or with the help of a partner and provides a stimulating, deep-tissue experience that can help relieve stiffness, soreness, help with injury recuperation and to relieve general muscle aches and pains.

We have been working so hard to give our customer the most relaxing, reliable, quiet and powerful massage device; so far, I am very happy with our Youlism massage device, which is among the best massage tools available. -Ben Xu, owner/founder of Youlism.

While the company is actively seeking distributors, they are currently offering the massage gun direct from their website with an introductory offer. By entering product code YoulismPR during checkout, the buyer receives an $80 discount off the normal price of $279. The promotion is running until July 7th, 2019.
