There is no better benchmark of the quality of a company's services than the online reviews that it receives. Stevens Creek Nissan has been focused on encouraging their customers to express their experiences online and it has paid off. The company recently surpassed 1,000 online Google reviews.

Nissan realizes that consumers are the main priority, as Nissan spokesperson Dan Passe explains, "Customer satisfaction is of the utmost importance to Nissan, which is why we encourage consumers to utilize the many third party resources available when researching automotive brands."

While getting customers to post reviews is the main challenge, there is also the struggle to maintain a positive rating. Stevens Creek Nissan has managed to achieve a rating of 4.1 out of 5 stars, which is even more impressive when considering that it is out of 1,000 reviews. The dealership has accredited much of this achievement to their extensively detailed online catalogue and wide selection of reasonably priced previously owned models.
