SAN FRANCISCO, CA, UNITED STATES, June 11, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- PrefLogic, Inc., a provider of Security Token issuance software, has unveiled a complete demo of its flagship product, the STO Wizard.

PrefLogic's demo highlights the journey a security token issuer takes to launch their project and engage investors to participate in a real estate purchase and also demonstrates the path to become an approved investor.

The STO Wizard platform features a suite of tools that enable issuers to build a security token, raise capital, and manage investors, and can be used by individuals or companies of any size in pursuit of their financial objectives.

Security tokens, which are also referred to as digital securities, act like digital versions of a traditional stock certificate representing an investment contract in an underlying asset or derivative. PrefLogic's SERC tokens employ dozens of smart contracts designed to automate business processes and help ensure compliance with regulations, streamlining the process of raising capital.
