

Exclusive briefing released from Diamond Aircraft Industries GmbH for the 8th Annual Military Flight Training Conference

SMI reports: Sponsor Diamond Aircraft Industries GmbH will be speaking and exhibiting at the Military Flight Training conference in London this October

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, June 11, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In May 2018, Diamond Aircraft Industries GmbH introduced a new variant of the Diamond Aircraft DART series, the DART-550, which successfully completed a basic flight program including a couple of low approaches, system checks, landing gear operation at different speeds as well as short field take off demonstration.

Markus Fischer, Sales Director of the DART series stated, "The DART-550 is our next massive push into being the only aircraft manufacturer to offer the full range for basic flight training - reaching its peak with this soon fully EASA certified DART-550 aerobatic trainer."

With this in mind, SMi's Military Flight Training conference is proud to be sponsored by Diamond Aircraft Industries GmbH, as well as having the expertise of the organisation's Head of Flight Operations Mr Martin Scherrer, who will be presenting at the event on the 9th-10th October 2019 in London.

Mr Martin Scherrer will be presenting on 'DART-550 The next level of versatility'. The presentation will cover:

- Introduction of the DART-550 trainer
- Designed to comply with modern requirements of military flight training
- Experience out of Test Flight Program/Certification
- Cost effectiveness of the DART-550

The latest agenda and speaker line-up is available on the event website at <http://www.militaryflight-training.com/pr4>

Participation at Military Flight Training 2019 will provide delegates the opportunity to hear a comprehensive update on the latest developments achieved in the realm of flight training
