

Shannon's summer online fine art auction will feature over 160 artworks by noted, listed artists, at approachable prices

Among the many gems in this sale is a collection of paintings by David Burliuk, a Russian Post-Impressionist known for his use of brightly colored impasto.

MILFORD, CONN., UNITED STATES, June 13, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Shannon's Fine Art Auctioneers announces their Summer Online Fine Art Auction to be held online on Thursday, June 20th at 2:00PM. The sale includes over 160 lots of quality fine art available at approachable prices for collectors at every level. The Online Catalog is available now at www.shannons.com.

Among the many gems in this sale is a collection of paintings by David Burliuk, a Russian Post-Impressionist artist who is well known for his use of brightly colored impasto. Other Impressionism included in the sale is a collection of French paintings by Dietz Edzard, his wife Suzanne Eisendieck and Paris painter, Jules Herve.

Lot No. 15, DAVID BURLIUK, American/Russian (1882-1967), Tea Party, oil on panel, signed, 8 x 10 inches, Estimate:$3,000-5,000

Modern and contemporary highlights include fine prints by Martin Lewis, Joan Miro, Marc Chagall, Sam Francis, Louise Nevelson, Paul Jenkins, Richard Anuszkiewicz and more.

The sale also features traditional landscape and cityscape painting from the 19th-20th Centuries by listed artists including Gustave Wiegand, William Merritt Post, Alfred Morang and Wilson Henry Irvine.

Among the other highlights from the sale are a Connecticut Landscape by Frank Vincent Dumond and a scene of Washington Square by Johann Berthelson. Bronzes are led by a pair of pelican bookends by Edgar Brandt, and "Driller" by Aaron Goodelman.

There is something for everyone in this auction with most works priced below $5,000 and little to no reserves.

Previews will be held on weekdays, starting Wednesday, June 12th, and continuing through Wednesday, June 19th (closed weekends). Preview hours are 11AM-5PM, eastern time. The auction will start promptly at 2:00PM ET on Thursday, June 20th via Invaluable.com and LiveAuctioneers.com.
