

Reliabilityweb Welcomes Aquitas Solutions as New Advocate, Announces Mia Hewett as the WIRAM Speaker at MaximoWorld-2019

Women in Reliability and Asset Management (WIRAM) is a professional peer group for women in the reliability and asset management fields.

FORT MYERS, FL, US, June 14, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Reliabilityweb.com® and the Association of Asset Management Professionals are pleased to announce that Aqitas Solutions has signed on as an advocate for Women in Reliability and Asset Management (WIRAM) and that Mia Hewett will be the WIRAM speaker at MaximoWorld-2019.

Aqitas Solutions is a MaximoWorld sponsor and a leading provider of EAM and IoT solutions that optimize asset intensive industries. Maddy Hawkins, Director of IoT Sales at Aquitas, has said that “WIRAM creates a networking environment that was sorely lacking in our industry of reliability and asset management. As an active participant since the group was first introduced, I have seen it grow stronger every year, inspiring its members through empowering and intellectual presentations and gatherings. Aquitas is proud to be an official Advocate of the WIRAM group, and we look forward to doing our part to contribute to its ongoing growth and success.”

Mia Hewett is an international speaker, world-class leader and performance catalyst. Her presentation, “How to Stop Secretly Struggling and Become the Confident Leader You Were Born to Be,” reflects her desire to help leaders who know that they are capable of more but don’t know why they aren’t achieving results, and who worry that they might not be good enough to reach their goals. With a specialty in achieving results, Mia’s aim is to support leaders as they move from good to great, and from great to unstoppable.

Women in Reliability and Asset Management (WIRAM) offers women working in the reliability and asset management fields a professional peer group, a chance to expand their networks, opportunities for local group leadership, and provides opportunities to enhance their leadership skills. WIRAM members can also take advantage of opportunities to enhance their leadership skills, join face-to-face roundtables at industry events, access thought leadership, and provide
