

New Brochure Released for the Pharmaceutical Cleanroom Technology Europe Conference 2019

SMi Reports: New brochure released for the 2019 Pharmaceutical Cleanroom Technology Europe conference taking place in London on 9th and 10th October

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, June 25, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Since the release of the agenda for the Inaugural Pharmaceutical Cleanroom Technology Europe conference, SMi are delighted to share the updated brochure with more speakers and a packed agenda for the two-day conference taking place on 9th and 10th October at the Copthorne Tara Hotel, London.

Through a series of presentations, attendees will gain insight into current industry trends in addressing the microbiological aspects in cleanroom design and engineering.

Hear expert industry leaders presenting at the 2019 conference, including the VCCN Spotlight Session:

Effective Cleanroom HVAC Systems presented by Koos Agricola, Contamination Control Expert, VCCN

- Evaluating the contamination removal efficiency by mechanical ventilation
- Improving energy efficiency of HVAC systems
- Developing technologies in HVAC control

Towards Future Proof High-Tech Facilities presented by Eric Stuiver, Chairman, VCCN

- What keeps pushing contamination control?
- Distinctive trends in science, technologies and markets
- New challenges and solutions (case studies) for cleanroom facility design
- How contamination control could look in 2050

The new brochure with full agenda and speaker line-up is now available to download online at <http://www.cleanroomtechnology.co.uk/einpr4>

Plus, two interactive half day Pre-Conference Workshops will take place on Tuesday 8th October:

Workshop A: Environmental Classification, Qualification and Monitoring of GMP Controlled areas
