LAS VEGAS, NEV., UNITED STATES, June 25, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lerner and Rowe Injury Attorneys is pleased to give back once again by sponsoring another Game Saver Program of the Las Vegas Sportz Foundation (LVSF). Their summer program provides local student-athletes ages 10 to 18 with the opportunity to get a FREE pre-participation physical evaluation and heart screening for school sports. The event begins at 8:00 a.m. and ends at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, July 27, 2019, at

The Space (3460 Cavaretta Ct., Las Vegas, NV 89103), located off Polaris Ave., just North of Harmon Ave. Parents are required to schedule an appointment in advance, as well as ensure their child brings an athletic packet from their school to the appointment.

Las Vegas Sportz Foundation's dedication to protecting our youth is just one of the reasons we continue to partner with the organization.”

Kevin Rowe, ESQ.

Because of the advanced steps taken during these pre-participation physical exam (PPE) sports screenings, physicians are able to detect general medical or physical problems in addition to any cardiac abnormalities in young athletes. Moreover, the electrocardiogram (ECG) and echocardiogram (ECHO) results, in addition to going over a qualitative exam and review of personal and family history, make these screenings much more informative than an average physical.

“LV Sportz Foundation goes above and beyond standard testing to help ensure student-athletes receive potentially life-saving exams without causing undue financial or emotional stress on families. Their dedication to protecting our youth is just one of the reasons we continue to partner with the organization,” said attorney Kevin Rowe.
