With so many flooring options, it can be challenging for home or business owners to know what options are best for them personally. Floors are a substantial investment for clients, and that's precisely why Rock Canyon Hardwood LLC offers their expert advice.

Hardwood—Many varieties of wood to choose from and is durable although it will require some touch ups long-term. Hardwood is an excellent choice for resale value and is always on trend

Refurbishing Hardwood—If you have hardwood that is discolored or damaged, refinishing, sanding and staining can bring its beauty back

LVP (Luxury Vinyl Plank)—Looks like wood, at a lower cost and extremely easy to clean. It's also a great alternative to wood if you have pets or small children (spills and messes)

Laminate—Looks like hardwood at a lower cost

Tile—Large variety of sizes, colors, and materials, such as granite, marble, porcelain, travertine, and slate

Engineered Wood—Looks like hardwood, but it's environmentally friendlier

Prefinished Hardwood—Installed in natural state and sanding, staining and finishing are done onsite

Radiant Heat Cork—Warm insulator, natural material, eco-friendly and antimicrobial

Choosing what flooring is best, depends on how high the traffic is in these areas, durability, your aesthetic preferences, temperature and weather resistant needs, desired longevity of your project, and your cost or budget.
