

Mirabella Beauty Launches 'Complete Face' Skincare Collection; The Brand's First Skincare Line

KANSAS CITY, MO, USA, June 26, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Professional beauty brand Mirabella has debuted its new skincare line, Complete Face; the first of its kind for the brand. The Complete Face collection features three products essential to proper skincare: a cleanser, toner, and daily moisturizer. Each made with skin-loving ingredients, the collection's three-piece product offering aims to serve as a daily skin regimen that is effortless enough for a novice and dynamically effective for use by industry professionals.

"With the support and overwhelming positive response following Mirabella's complete product line rebrand over the last year and a half, I felt inspired to offer our customers a skincare solution that paired perfectly with our company's mission and product offerings," says Miranda Coggins, owner of Mirabella. "Using only the best skin-loving ingredients, I worked to develop a skincare line that would not only be beneficial to the health of the skin, but also minimize the steps associated with a daily skincare routine, as I have, myself, become overwhelmed by the product list and steps often associated with an 'ideal skincare practice'. A three-piece collection seemed like the perfect answer."

With this key idea in mind, Coggins and her development and design teams constructed the collection that can be applied in a three-part system, 1-2 times daily, or used individually to achieve desired results.
