

Youth Demonstrates the Perfect Example of The Way to Happiness Precept “Set a Good Example”

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, US, June 27, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- This week, the Way to Happiness Association of Tampa Bay announced, “The Perfect Example” of an eighth-grader by the name of Drew, who chose to support a children’s nonprofit for his assigned community service. Drew made and sold chocolates to raise funds for the nonprofit after his teacher gave them a project to do something good for a group or organization.

Thousands of youth have participated in The Way to Happiness Set a Good Example Contest, thereby inspiring millions of other youth through their street cleanups and graffiti paint-outs and other activities.

“Children like Drew exemplify good behavior and care towards others,” said the Tanja Cranton, the Executive Director of The Way to Happiness Association Tampa Bay. Cranton further explained that lack of self-discipline and moral values among youth can turn into unwanted behavior and even criminality. The Way to Happiness helps young people to develop a common sense moral compass through projects such as the “Set a Good Example Contest”.

The Way to Happiness Foundation in Glendale California runs many Youth Poster and Youth Essay Contests with its largest being the Set a Good Example Contest. The contest has reached into more than 12,000 schools, contacting 12 million students. Their national Set a Good Example Contest has been recognized sixteen times in the US Congressional Record.

Projects for the contest can be anything that forwards the common sense moral values found in The Way to Happiness book. Some entrants have carried out cleanup campaigns. Others have organized and distributed copies of The Way to Happiness in their communities. Their actions promote honesty, tolerance, hard work, competence, respecting the religious beliefs of others, taking care of the environment, or being industrious.

The Way to Happiness:

The Way to Happiness book was written and published by L. Ron Hubbard in 1981 as a nonreligious, common-sense guide to better living. Its purpose is to help arrest the current moral decline in society and restore integrity and trust to humankind. It is available in 112 languages, with some 115 million copies distributed in 186 nations. The campaign to distribute the book has been embraced by more than 257,000 groups and individuals and millions around the world have received the materials free of charge thanks to the continued sponsorship of the Church of Scientology. The Way to Happiness holds the Guinness World Record as the single most-translated nonreligious book and fills the moral vacuum in an increasingly materialistic society.
