

QHHT Practitioner Jan Marie to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA,
CANADA, July 1, 2019

/EINPresswire.com/ -- For centuries, human beings have been tragically losing their lives to devastating illness like cancer, heart disease, and strokes. It has been widely documented that grief, and our emotional, subconscious and psychological beliefs sustained during our lives actually affects our physical well-being. Could it actually be possible that we are unwittingly the cause of our own diseases?

Jan is a gifted Quantum Healing Hypnosis Technique practitioner, Beyond Quantum Healing, facilitates Energy Transfer Resets, to return you back to a pure state when you were first created, Empath, Intuitive Energy Healer, Crystal Reiki healer and Reiki master.

My work now is currently focused on two of the most effective methods of healing which are Quantum Healing Hypnosis Technique and Energy Transfer Resets” says Jan. “I facilitate my clients journey through past, current, future or in between lives with a keen ability to connect them to their subconscious, Higher self or source of all knowledge to initiate the total healing process.”

Although Jan can offer no guarantees as it is up to the individual to trust the process, relax and let go. She has unconditionally proven through her astonishing healing modalities people can experience miraculous recovery. Cancers have been cured, joints reconstructed, heart conditions being eradicated without surgeries, open flesh wounds regenerated without scarring, heart conditions being eradicated without surgeries, diseased livers being recovered to full function and chronic pain eliminated.

“There’s nothing that can’t happen beyond the realm of possibilities except the limitations of our own minds”. Says Jan. “Human beings manifest their own ailments from so much accumulated trauma and living in that hamster wheel of negativity and thought processes. Regrettably, we just aren’t aware of how to access that power. “This is my journey, this is what I am here to do” says Jan.

“Often cancers are caused by anger turned inwards, and how many people have been terribly stricken with cancer?” Says Jan. “But all our physical and emotional suffering can be eradicated when we willingly release resentment and bitterness and learn to release and forgive.”

Jan suggests people try to stay in a constant state of well-being. Meditating is ideal for helping to release past negative experiences. Try it each night before you sleep and clear yourself daily. Jan's amazing healing facilitations also work wonderfully on our furry friends as well so we can help beloved pets heal as well.

"Everything is energy and we can manipulate energy, we can use it for positive," says Jan. Be open and honest and make absolute certain that life is treating you well. We can't avoid all trauma but we can certainly heal the past and live beautiful happier lives."
