

Fran Briggs Releases The Best of Summer Reading, 2019

List put the spotlight on a select few of talented and distinguished authors from the U.S.A., Canada, and the U.K.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, July 2, 2019

/EINPresswire.com/ -- American Journalist, Fran Briggs announced her picks for the best among summer reading this morning. The annual list is organized by title, publisher, author, a short synopsis of the book, and a link for additional information and purchase.

Readers can look forward to being entertained and moved by thoroughly-developed plots, and action-provoking, thoughts. Genres include romance, humor, children's, non-fiction, Christian and science-fiction. The selections showcase originality, creativity, impact and influence.

"The Best of Summer Reading" helps enthusiastic readers make quality decisions as it pertains to their reading choices--especially considering the innumerable choices on the market," explained Briggs. "The reading list is worthwhile and generates an enormous amount of exposure for each author."

Readers can expect to take a journey to an exotic country; come face-to-face with forces of nature; add to their intellect, and more. Fran Briggs added that the books not only promote literacy, but showcase the talents of ten authors from the U.S.A. to the U.K. who are capturing the attention of readers, worldwide.
