

Mark Stephen Pooler Rewrites his Personal Story and Scores a Best Seller

BIRMINGHAM, UNITED KINGDOM, July 3, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- By the time Mark Stephen Pooler was in his early 20s, most around him had already written him off. He was a crack cocaine and heroin addict who had been beaten down by years of bullying. Yet, his next chapter is proving to be one to be one for the books. In fact, he has recently released his new book, Step Into Your Brilliance, which is already a bestseller.

The book is a guide to entrepreneurship and advocates using positive storytelling and social media to establish oneself as a thought leader and subject matter expert. It was released May 28 and is available on Amazon in paperback and for Kindle and also launches on Audible this week.

Mark Stephen Pooler Best Selling Author

Pooler says that the day he died is the day his life began again. Drug abuse quite literally led to his clinical death, yet when he was revived, he not only refused to be a victim again but embraced who he was and made supporting others central to his story.

Success leaves footprints
and when looking back you should see a lot of steps”
