Personal injury attorney Kevin Rowe shares why he believes this event serves an important purpose. “Building the best educational foundation possible requires students having access to the right tools. One of those tools is having school supplies to fully participate in what goes on in the classroom. We hope that these backpacks and supplies will help each child who receives them to focus more on their studies and less on what they can't do because they don't have that item to complete a task.”

Those interested in attending are advised to arrive early as supplies are limited and will be given out on a first-come, first-served basis while they last. For more information about the Tucson Backpack Giveaway, please contact Cindy Ernst with Lerner and Rowe Gives Back at (520) 977-1900.
