

MevoFit Echo-Swim Swimming Fitness Band for Fitness & Sports PRO Launched in India

New advanced fitness band which is IP 68 certified and comes with Swim tracking. It's smart, sturdy, durable & supports multiple sport modes.

DELHI, INDIA, July 10, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In the recent times, there has been a huge demand for the fitness trackers & smartwatches. With the Indian market being receptive to wearables from brands such as Fitbit and Apple, several other manufacturers have launched their own products in the Indian market at very competitive prices. MevoFit, a fitness technology start-up is one of such manufacturer who has launched many fitness tracker bands at awesome prices. The latest edition to their wide portfolio of smartwatches & fitness watches is "MevoFit Echo-Swim".

MevoFit Echo Swim, is a sleek, stylish, sexy, powerful and responsive fitness band that's said to be fitted with some amazing features including steps tracker, calories burnt tracker, distance tracker, sleep tracker, heart rate rate tracker, blood pressure tracker, blood oxygen, alarms and reminders, sedentary alerts and notifications. Some other noteworthy features of the product include phone and social notifications, clock and reminders, anti-lost (find my phone), wrist gesture and remote camera control, and sedentary alerts – all this with a long-lasting battery. Featuring a comfortable design, MevoFit Echo Swim has a soft and skin-friendly TPU Medical Grade Strap supported by an easy-to-fix and secure buckle.

MevoFit Echo Swim is available in 3 colors - Black, Blue and Grey. The band comes with big colored screen which is operated through a single touch point. It is a lightweight activity tracker which is scratch tolerant and skin friendly. This band is a USB in itself and hence does not need any separate charger, simply detach from the strap and connect to any USB port to charge the band. Once switched on, it seamlessly syncs data between the band and MevoFit Fitness Tracker app through Bluetooth connectivity. MevoFit Echo Swim is a handy fitness band that can be easily worn throughout the day. Just wear it nice and easy in a casual manner around your wrist. The best part, it syncs all the data captured around your activity from the band in the app for unified data management. At one glance, you are able to keep a tab on all your daily activity.
