

Regalix's latest CMO Guide provides an in-depth look at B2B Content Marketing

PALO ALTO, CALIFORNIA, USA, July 10, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Regalix has released the latest edition of CMO Guide titled "B2B Content Marketing." The CMO Guide is a Regalix research initiative meant for marketing leaders that encapsulates insights from multiple domains based on deep research conducted by industry experts.

This edition explores why content is still considered as one of the most important marketing tools for B2B organizations and how a structured content engine is vital for companies that want to stand out from the crowd. It also identifies how businesses benefit from different content marketing strategies and discusses the best practices followed in the domain.

The report further goes on to explain how companies can go about putting robust content strategies in place and future trends in this space. In addition, some of the content marketing initiatives taken by companies like Cisco, GE, Barclays and WeWork have been highlighted.

"The emphasis on content has grown for marketers today because effective content engages buyers through their journey as they evaluate multiple products and solutions. It, therefore, becomes key for businesses to have a robust content strategy in place," says Nimish Vohra, SVP – Marketing, Regalix.
