Casino Gaming Equipment Market: Segmentation

The market research report includes a detailed segmentation of the market by demand, products, class type, lottery machines, and geography. Casino gaming equipment vendors majorly earn revenue from the sale of casino gaming equipment via two sources—new or expansionary demand and replacement demand. The new/expansionary segment grew at an impressive CAGR in 2018, while the replacement segment is expected to grow moderately during the forecast period. In 2018, the replacement sales registered the highest revenue in North America, followed by APAC. The introduction of upgrades and innovations and the substitution of old legacy systems with innovative solutions with advanced features are majorly driving the replacement segment.

Casino slot machines were the largest revenue generating segment of the casino gaming equipment market in 2018. Slot machines have evolved considerably, and the segment is witnessing increasing automation. North America is expected to continue its dominance during the forecast period. Also, the APAC region is likely to remain another significant revenue contributor to the market by 2024.

The US and Canada are well-established markets for lottery systems, and they contribute a high revenue toward the gambling market. Lottery inside casinos and outside casinos are the two major lottery machines in the casino gaming equipment market. The inside casino lottery machines segment captured around three-fourths of the market, with North America dominating the market both in revenue and unit shipment in 2018. However, the segment is expected to decrease its influence due to the penetration of video lottery terminals (VLTs) in casinos.
