"American Stranger the Musical" recently received the "Hollywood Fringe Festival ENCORE! Award" as well as the "Better Lemons 'Sweet' Audience Review Award." The musical is based on the music by Laura Espinoza; "American Stranger" is the story of three siblings, two of whom are learning to understand the third who is transitioning from their brother to their sister, now known as Mary. Rejection and intolerance plagues Mary - from society and from her parents who have disowned her. However, it is the loss of her beloved girlfriend, Dionne, that haunts her the most. America's growing cultural divide has made Mary a stranger in her own country. "American Stranger" features the acoustic versions of the songs of Laura Espinoza & London Reign.

Here's what the audience is saying:

"The music and singing were outstanding. Wonderful show, talented performers and great music. It's so many people's story, in many different ways. We are all just fumbling around, looking for love, looking for family. Trying to follow our hearts and survive." - Lauren Peterson

"I own the record 'American Stranger' by the band Laura Espinoza & Lunden Reign and I really dig it.

I was very impressed with how Laura Espinoza, the song writer and guitarist of 'American Stranger,' brought her album to life with this beautiful musical." - Michael Dinapoli

"What a beautiful gift this musical is! The writer had to know what a powerful message this would be, much needed yesterday, today, and tomorrow. Go see it and feel the love, confusion of being new in LA, and the message being sung beautifully by Delia Rawdon, Mindy Milburn, Miranda Miller with a great cast including Jacklyn Robinson, Scooby Ducati, Bill Melrose, and Sabrina Richmond. The writer, composer and guitarist Laura Espinoza has presented a musical that you cannot forget, ever!" - Lisa Furuto
