Global Market Outline: Dicalcium Phosphate (Feed Grade) Market

The agriculture industry, one of the most dynamic industries, is a powerful tool to end extreme poverty and economic growth. The history of the agriculture industry dates back to the Indus Valley Civilization era and is responsible for generating employment to a substantial percentage of the global populace. The sector caters to food demands of the global population as well as the raw material requirements of other industries. Any changes in the sector affect the entire economy multiple times. The agriculture industry is currently facing multiple challenges, including the need to produce more food and fiber to feed a growing population with existing, limited resources. Water scarcity and limited availability of arable land remain challenges. The need to adapt to climate change and achievement of sustainability also remain key areas of concern.

Latest update on Dicalcium Phosphate (Feed Grade) Market

The agriculture sector is predicted to evolve with modern times. The current era with the perfection of industrialization and reliance on mechanization is likely to bode well for farmers. With pressure from economies, farmers are brushing up their methods and techniques to cater to growing food demands. Supportive policies to encourage the oldest profession combined with steps taken to protect farmers from fraud can be pivotal in the sector growth. Fertilizers form a major part of farming with the chemicals providing a constant supply of nutrients to crops. They are offered to farmers via subsidies or government schemes. Minimum support prices (MSP) set by governments for farmers to gain benefits from their produce can encourage modern farming techniques. Techniques of drip irrigation, reduction of tillage, integrated pest management, and agroforestry practices can increase the production of crops. Higher MSP can culminate in higher investment in the sector.
