The Eberhard “Quadrifoglio Verde” chronograph is a tribute to the sporting spirit that has inspired so many Eberhard creations: a unique timepiece conceived to convey all the Brand’s technical prowess and style. It boasts a generous 43mm diameter steel case housing the automatic movement, which animates three counters. Of these, the small seconds’ catches the eye first: the hand is shaped like the triangular clover emblem, modern construction that gives this model its enticing look. The tachymeter scale surrounding the deep black dial, inspired by the readability of Alfa Romeo’s dashboard instruments, neatly combines all the tradition of the Eberhard & Co.’s chronographs with an automotive imprint. The satin-finished bezel and buttons contribute to the stylish balance of the case, which appears sporting and elegant in equal measure.
