

The Foundation for A Drug-Free World Florida Celebrates Millions Learning the Truth since their Opening Four Years Ago

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, US, July 24, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- July 11th marked the 4-year anniversary of the opening of the Foundation for a Drug-Free World (FDFW) Florida chapter's information center in downtown Clearwater. In celebration of this, FDFW participated in the downtown Clearwater Block Party on July 13, 2019. Hundreds visited the FDFW center to learn more about the program and received information booklets on the harmful effects of drugs. The Block Party included live music and dancing, complimentary food, drinks and fun activities for the kids.

Youth and adults visit the Foundation for a Drug-Free World Florida chapter's information center in downtown Clearwater every day to find out the Truth About Drugs.

Since the opening of the FDFW information center in 2015, over 2 million information booklets have been distributed all over Florida and millions of people have been reached through TV, radio and other media.

We are going to continue to do whatever we can to educate youth on the dangers of drugs, so they stay safe and drug-free.”

Julieta Santagostino, President of FDFW Florida

“Our information center is here for the community and we welcome all to come and learn about the dangers of drugs and to share the free Truth About Drugs materials with others,” said Julieta Santagostino, the President of the Foundation for a Drug-Free World Florida Chapter.

Per the 2018 Florida Youth Substance Abuse Survey, drug use among Florida youth has been declining. [1]

“We are going to continue to do whatever we can to educate youth on the dangers of drugs, so they stay safe and drug-free,” said Ms. Santagostino.
