Tanya is a tax specialist since 2005 and specializes in tax strategies and planning with a history of saving her clients thousands of dollars on taxes through tax resolution services. She recently purchased a local business to launch her company with the acquisition of Hub Gregory Consulting, Inc., a 20-year tax firm of enrolled agents and tax planners based in Jacksonville.

As an IRS Enrolled Agent authorized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), she represents taxpayers in all 50 states. Tanya works with clients primarily in construction and real estate, focusing on sub-contractors and real estate agents along with individuals and companies. With the designations, Tanya has unlimited practice rights and is unrestricted as to taxpayers she can represent, and what types of income tax or financial matters clients have in the U.S. She is knowledgeable and holds expertise in the legal rules and procedures governing how federal, state and local governments calculate taxes including income, corporate, excise, luxury, estate and property taxes, to name just a few.

Recently, Tanya developed an online instruction and video course for individuals and companies to learn and implement QuickBooks and has offered clients a self-published book, "10 Most Expensive Tax Mistakes That Cost Business Owners Thousands". She is offering the book free of charge with limited supplies available.
