About Andrea Rose®: Andrea Rose has 22 years of experience as an award-winning inventor, having created over 100+ products, many of which she transformed into successful businesses. Andrea founded “The Inventors Road Show™” www.theinventorsroadshow.com believing that “Anyone can have an innovative idea for an invention. What they need are the tools to help them navigate the difficult and daunting task of turning their ideas into an asset and marketable success”. Many of the free events have been held at Microsoft Flagship on Fifth Avenue in Manhattan. Andrea has also partnered with top companies seeking new products, helping inventors bring their inventions to the marketplace. The workshops have culminated in Andrea Rose’s new digital online course “Inventing to Win™” www.inventingtowin.com providing step by step instruction for inventors on how to turn their ideas into a reality. Andrea has a private consulting practice for inventors and is a keynote motivational speaker at inventor forums.
