B2B Industrial Packaging President Bill Drake said, "We were excited when we qualified last year; in some ways this is even better. Making the list for the second year means our rapid growth is not an anomaly—rather it reflects careful strategy supported by a fantastic team of dedicated employees. We are very proud of our organic growth and also our four acquisitions in the past year."

Since the 2018 Fast 50 list was announced, B2B Industrial Packaging has acquired Rapid-Pac in Illinois; Central Packaging in Kansas; and most recently Empire Systems and Empire West Solutions in California.

B2B Industrial Packaging's success is based on deep, long-term client relationships developed through outstanding client service and the demonstrated value of the products and services it offers.
