

Ground-Breaking Therapy for the Trauma of Sexual and Emotional Affairs is Coming to San Francisco

Award-winning marriage counselor and infidelity recovery expert is touring the country teaching a new counseling method for infidelity.

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, August 1, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Systematic Affair Recovery Therapy (SART)™ was developed by Dr. Talal H. Alsaleem, PsyD, LMFT to provide counselors of all levels with a strategic and adaptive treatment method for helping couples heal from the trauma of sexual and emotional affairs.

“They say that need is the mother of invention, and infidelity is considered one of the most prevalent and challenging clinical issues to treat. But, despite its prevalence and complexity, there is a lack of adequate and effective treatment methods that can be used to train other therapists on how to help couples and individuals heal from the trauma of affairs. This is why I am making it my mission to provide therapists from all over the world with access to the Systematic Affair Recovery Therapy Training,” says Dr. Alsaleem.
