Consumer Lending Market United Kingdom 2023

For the second time in a decade, the rate was raised by a quarter of a percentage point, from 0.5% to 0.75% at the start of August 2018, the highest level since March 2009. Expected to raise the interest rate in May 2018, the Bank of England waited because of the economic dip at the start of the year; however, concerns over spending growth combined with a shortage of available workers leading to rising inflation convinced them to raise the interest rate. There will probably be further interest r...
