

CBT Corp Launches BitWorks Global Blockchain Consulting

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA, CANADA, August 5, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cryptanite Blockchain Technologies Corp. (CSE: NITE) (OTCQB: CRBTF) (FRA: 98AA), a Colorado-based blockchain technology company, today announced a new blockchain consulting division called "BitWorks". This new division is set to enhance many industries with blockchain, and provide clients with development and consulting services in the blockchain industry ("Enterprise Blockchain").

BitWorks specializes in IBM Hyperledger technologies but also works with other solutions including Ethereum's Solidity and blockchain protocols like EOS.

BitWorks clients currently include One Feather Mobile Technologies Ltd, of Victoria, Canada, B.C.. Canada, providing a range of blockchain based solutions for First Nations, and the team is currently in discussions with a number of clients from around the globe looking for products and solutions related to finance, asset management, healthcare, supply chain including oil and gas sectors, identity and voting as well as the telecommunications.

Most people associate blockchain with Bitcoin, or cryptocurrency however, while cryptocurrencies are based on blockchain, this technology is much more than "digital money" and its applications, while still emerging, are transforming the global economy. BitWorks has the expertise to help clients optimize their business models and unlock the potential of this technology.

BitWorks is a sophisticated suite of intellectual, technical, information, human networks and organizational resources, which provides small and medium businesses with blockchain technology consulting and professional services from Minimum Viable Product (MVP) to scalable web and mobile platforms.

Enterprise Blockchain delivered by BitWorks is a significant leap forward in information technologies and will allow for a much more secure and effective management of information and which will most certainly enhance the way companies operate.
