About Boys & Girls Clubs of the Twin Cities - GREAT FUTURES START HERE.

Minnesota Twins Pitcher Kyle Gibson and Elizabeth Gibson are hosting the 13th annual Grand Slam Dinner benefitting the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Twin Cities.

The Boys & Girls Clubs of the Twin Cities represent more than 90 years of service to youth. The Clubs provide activities and support to more than 9,000 young people in kindergarten through graduation from high-school. With eight inner-city locations, the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Twin Cities is one of only a few local organizations dedicated specifically to youth development. Each young person deserves the opportunity to strengthen academic and social skills, develop positive leadership traits, and learn healthy living behaviors. By building a strong foundation, the Club prepares the next generation for success. The mission of the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Twin Cities is to enable all young people, especially those who need us most, to reach their full potential as productive, caring and responsible citizens.
