ALLENTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA, UNITED STATES, August 5, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On June 27, the Allentown School District School Board renewed the charter for Executive Education Academy Charter School in Allentown. The charter has been extended through June 2024.

Executive Education Charter School in Allentown has had its charter renewed for another five years

The Lehigh Valley Charter school has enrolled 1,300 students in grades K through 12. Students learn reading, math, science, history, and other state-required standards, as well as business functions and career readiness. The school has been praised for its unique business education curriculum, its extracurriculars and athletics, and its highly skilled teaching staff.

We are thrilled that we have another five years to continue making a difference in the lives of our students and the community.”

Robert Lysek, CEO & Founder

“We have grown tremendously since our inception in 2014,” says Robert Lysek, founder and CEO of the Allentown charter school. “We are thrilled that we have another five years to continue making a difference in the lives of our students and the community.”

Students from 11 other school districts, including Bethlehem, Whitehall, and Northampton, are welcome to enroll in EEACS. If all openings are filled, students are put on a waiting list.
