ALLENTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA, UNITED STATES, August 13, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Executive Education Academy Charter School in Allentown will open its doors for the 2019-2020 school year on September 3. This is the sixth year of operations for the Lehigh Valley charter school, which enrolls 1,300 students in grades K through 12.

Executive Education Charter School in Allentown starts the 2019-2020 school year on September 3

Students in every grade learn academic standards such as math, science, history, reading, and writing, as well as special instruction in the arts, computers, and languages. Meanwhile, a business education curriculum helps students prepare for college and the workforce with career readiness programs, internships, and on-site mentors.

“

We are looking forward to a new year, with new faces, and new opportunities.”
Robert Lysek, CEO & Founder

The school celebrated its first graduating class in 2019 and is excited to welcome the Class of 2020.

“We are looking forward to a new year, with new faces, and new opportunities,” says Robert Lysek, founder and CEO of the Allentown charter school.

The school has grown exponentially since it was founded, having built a new gymnasium, added new grades, and partnered with over three dozen local businesses and nonprofits.
