LONDON, GREATER LONDON, UK, August 5, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The global electric bikes and scooters market was valued at about $18.06 billion in 2018 and is expected to grow to $24.26 billion at a CAGR of 7.7% through 2022.

Increasing awareness about pollution is a key driver of the electric bikes and scooters market. This is because more people are now understanding the importance of reducing pollution, and this awareness has led them to look for more environment friendly modes of transportation which minimize and control the pollution.

The lack of infrastructure for battery charging is a major restraint on the electric bikes and scooters market. This is mainly because a lack of sufficient bike or scooter charging stations leads to a scarcity of battery charging, and discourages people from purchasing electric bikes or scooters.
