LONDON, GREATER LONDON, UK, August 6, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The animal and pet food market expected to reach a value of nearly $449.5 billion by 2022, significantly growing at a CAGR of 8.6% during the forecast period. The growth in the animal and pet food market is due to increasing pet adoption in many developed and developing countries, rising disposable income in many countries in Asia and Africa and rising awareness about pet care.

However, the market for animal and pet food is expected to face certain restraints from several factors such as health awareness and shift towards natural drinks.

The animal and pet food manufacturing market consists of sales of animal and pet foods by entities (organizations, sole traders and partnerships) that produce food and feed for animals and pets from ingredients, such as grains, oilseed mill products, and meat products.
