

Sync Calendar Attachments from Outlook to Google with CompanionLink

When an Outlook Invite contains a map or picture, you can easily synchronize it to Google using CompanionLink's handy Sync App.

PORTLAND, OR, US, August 7, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CompanionLink Software has released an update to CompanionLink for Google to provide support for Outlook PDF and File Attachment sync to Google Calendar. This update means that any information that is attached to an Outlook Calendar item is automatically synchronized to Google, which many people use as a hub for their Phone Contacts and Calendar. To highlight this new feature CompanionLink has release a video entitled Sync Outlook Calendar with Google Calendar.

“In Outlook, you can set up a Calendar Event with an attachment like a Hotel Reservation, Location Map or Event picture,” says Wayland Bruns, CTO for CompanionLink. “Recently Google started supporting attachments for Google Calendar. We were very happy to add this support to CompanionLink for Google, being the first Outlook Google Sync App to fully support Attachments. If you use Google Calendar App on your phone, you will see the attachments on each of your Calendar events.”
