Unlike early more primitive attempts by others who tried to use CBD oil to infuse coffee which separates and sticks to the cup, or hiding the CBD in sweeteners or other impurities, the Baristas EnrichaRoast CBD Coffee uses Flower Powers proprietary technology, introducing CBD to the beans after they are roasted.

The media buys are made possible and were created via digital media frontrunner ReelTime Media (OTCPK: RLTR) www.reeltime.com whose capabilities are redefining how companies are evaluating and purchasing their TV, radio, print, and other new media. Baristas is now ready to support its new products and distributors with a marketing effort educating and driving consumers to consume Baristas historical products.
