

Youth Learns Truth About Drugs And Now Wants To Help Educate Others

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, US, August 8, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A teenager, who had received a copy of the Truth About Marijuana information booklet from a Foundation for a Drug-Free World (FDFW), returned to the FDFW's information center in Clearwater and announced she had read the entire booklet. She said that she realized how she had had no idea of all the effects of marijuana and felt the booklet was extremely informative. 13-year-old Nikka now wants to volunteer for FDFW and help get the information out to her peers and with the permission of her parents signed up as a volunteer.

The teen has since brought other teenagers to the FDFW information center where they also read the Truth About Drugs and Truth About Marijuana booklets. Nikka also signed the Drug-Free Pledge and encouraged others to do the same.

I thought Marijuana was safe, but actually it's not! It's poison to your body and leads to harder, even more dangers, drugs.”

“The Truth About Marijuana booklet is really cool because it gives so much information I didn't know,” said Nikka “I thought Marijuana was safe, but actually it's not! It's poison to your body and leads to harder, even more dangers, drugs.”

Per the National Institute on Drug Abuse, people are most likely to begin abusing drugs—including tobacco, alcohol, and illegal and prescription drugs—during adolescence and young adulthood. By the time they are seniors, almost 70 percent of high school students will have tried alcohol, half will have taken an illegal drug, nearly 40 percent will have smoked a cigarette, and more than 20 percent will have used a prescription drug for a nonmedical purpose.
