Dr Clyde Rivers

H. E Montoute, said he and the Prime Minister, Allen Chastanet haven't always agreed on everything, but that didn't hinder him from recognizing the excellence of this leaders service for his country. Ambassador Dr. Clyde Rivers, hope is that other nations would look at this example and follow suite. As leadership goes so does the nation. St. Lucia is moving in a great direction to become the First Civility Nation in the World. Where people are living the Golden Rule, treating others the way they want to be treated.

H. E. Lenard Montoute, declared “St. Lucia would be one of the World first Civility Countries in the world". Ambassador Dr. Clyde Rivers stated "We are in the process of establishing an official day for World Civility day on the island of St. Lucia. We are very excited to see St. Lucia coming aboard as a nation where Civility leads the way."

Dr. Clyde Rivers said "the event was extremely successful, due largely to the efforts of the I Change Nations advisor to the Caribbean Dr. Radha Rampersad. Dr. Rampersad helped plan, organize and facilitate the event.
