Humans:

Based at Etherblade, the Humans in Perfect World Mobile have used their knowledge to develop sprawling cities and bustling economies. Players that wish to explore the world as a Human will have the choice of playing as a Blademaster or Wizard. Specializing in melee combat and masters of many weapons, Blademasters are able to wield various swords, axes, and hammers. The Blademaster's skills will change based on the weapon the player chooses to equip bringing a fresh playstyle with every weapon. The powerful Wizard is the second class option for human players. Gifted with powerful casting abilities, Wizards are able to lay waste to swarms of enemies and unleash the force of destruction against their foes.

Winged Elves:

Dating back to ancient times, the elegant Winged Elves call the City of the Plume their home. For those players wanting to experience Perfect World Mobile as a Winged Elf, there are two class options, the Archer and the Cleric. Highly skilled with long-ranged weapons and the guards of their kind, Archers have great mobility and are able to attack their opponents from a great range. Players that enjoy a more supportive role can opt to play as the Winged Elf Cleric. Able to fly freely, Clerics are able to heal their allies and buffer the fighting capacity of their team. With skills in supporting magic, curses, and other spiritual powers Clerics are able to bolster their party.

Untamed:

Skilled in using a variety of venoms to defeat their enemies, the Untamed have both a human and a tiger form. Hailing from the City of the Lost, the Untamed have a keen awareness and great willpower. Untamed Barbarians in tiger form are resistant to their enemy's damage and possess incredible strength. While in their human form their strength is in their offensive attacks which are powerful enough to shake the earth.
