

The Scientology Information Center in Downtown Clearwater Features Stories from the Life of a True “Renaissance Man”

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, US, August 14, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Scientology Information Center announces that it will be highlighting a new unknown fact about L. Ron Hubbard every day for the next 3 weeks providing insight into the life of a “renaissance man.” There are thousands of human interest stories inside the life of L. Ron Hubbard - from flying gliders and planes, sailing vessels of any tonnage on any ocean, researching plants, writing best-sellers in multiple genres, traveling all over five continents, to being philosopher, founder of Scientology and friend to Humanity.

The Scientology Information Center in downtown Clearwater is located in the historic Clearwater building at 500 Cleveland Street. The 101-year-old facility was restored by the Church of Scientology in 1995.

The Scientology Information Center housed in the historic Clearwater building with its gallery of displays, video screens and information panels. The center is open daily from 10am-10pm and requires no appointment to visit.

The Center provides a bright, spacious, open look at the life, legacy and feats of L. Ron Hubbard, the many Churches spread across six continents that sprang from his religious principles and the Church-sponsored humanitarian programs.

The L. Ron Hubbard display provides answers to questions such as:

- Which successful race car driver was once Mr. Hubbard’s mechanic?
- Which struggling writer from the 60’s became a best-selling author after following L. Ron Hubbard’s advice?

- What world-renowned science-fiction illustrator referred to L. Ron Hubbard as a “very important influence” in his life?
- How did L. Ron Hubbard “pay-forward” his success as a writer to present day up-and-coming talented artists?

The Center is open daily from 10am-10pm. It provides visitors an opportunity to engage on a self-guided tour of four informational displays, panels and educational videos.
