PUNE, MAHARASHTRA, INDIA, August 21, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Skateboard Shoes Market:

Executive Summary

The skateboard shoes are type of shoes that are used by an individual for skateboards. Skateboard shoes are different as compared to normal shoes as they are not meant for walking, hiking, or running. The skate shoes are having flat, grippy and wide soles but they aren't built for continuous thumping, which makes them less suitable option for walking. Skateboard shoes are divided in two categories that is Cup sole Shoes which are having thick soles that are glued and sewn into shoes and other is Vulcanized Sole Shoes in which soles are thinner made up of individual components that are glued together. Factors like durability, purpose, protection provided by skateboard shoes are the major drivers of global skateboard shoes market. The market is further expected to grow as companies are coming up with new shoes that are light in weight, can be used for long period of time and handle more stress. Further, emergence of new players in the market is also expected to drive the demand in future. However, rapid changes in skateboard shoes market, high cost associated with the product are expected to hamper the growth in forecast period.
