The "Best of Los Angeles Award" community was formed four years ago and consists of over 5,400 professional members living and working in Southern California. It celebrates the best people, places and things in Los Angeles with a slogan "No Ads. No B.S. Only the Best."

"The mission of the community is to celebrate the best of Los Angeles, and allow its community members to connect with other members who share the highest standards of quality and integrity," expresses DeRose. "We're honored to include Tom Girardi of Girardi Keese into our BoLAA family."

In one of Girardi's better-known cases against Pacific Gas & Electric, the utility company agreed to pay $333 million to 650 residents of the desert community of Hinkley, California. The residents blamed incidents of cancer and other diseases on contaminated water leaked from a gas pumping station. This case was the inspiration for the film Erin Brockovich starring Julia Roberts.

Recently, Girardi appeared in "Without Notes," an acclaimed television show for the web that rediscovers the art of long form communication. The show began in 2014 and has since grown a
