The major forces driving the growth of the talent management market include the better professional development decisions and improved onboarding experience. Moreover, high performing workforce and commitment to align business strategy are also some of the factors that are driving the market growth. However lack of awareness, and budget constraints may hinder the market growth. In the middle of difficulty lies opportunity such as the unified integrated system for performance assessments, and need for big data analytics and cloud-based talent management system. The possible challenges for the market growth are a holistic talent management approach with involvement of top management, and lack of skilled talent. But key players in the market are overcoming the challenges with continual improvement and innovation.

The software (talent management) plays a major role in having details of every employee, starting from the date of recruitment to their entire tenure at the organization. It has enabled HR professionals to play a major role in engaging and retaining employees. The professionals can take the entire set of data and go for analyzing for the enhancement of the methods of employee engagement, and thus delivering greater value to the organization.
