In an era of unprecedented growth that has resulted in improved living standards for people across the economic spectrum worldwide, the neo upper-middle class has emerged as an attractive consumer base for the Global Luxury Packaging Market. With its traditional base of uber rich consumers still intact, the millennial population seems to attach a greater affinity to more refined products that match their aspirations and struggles. The most integral part of any Luxury product is its packaging which encompasses design, research, development, and manufacturing of outer/physical displays for luxury brands. The packaging of a luxury product is the hallmark of the brand's standing, which also stimulates customers to spend more on products that are more appealing and premium.

As per the latest report from Global Info Research, the market for Global Luxury Packaging is expected to post a Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of roughly 6.8% over the next five years. The total market value is expected to rise to US$ 23.60 billion in 2024, from US$ 17 billion in 2019. This upward trend can largely be attributed to the rising demand for Cosmetics and Fragrances which alone accounts for over 42% of the total consumption of Luxury Packaging platforms.
