

NPI's Mitch Gould Announces Robert Buckley as Executive Vice President

BOCA RATON, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, August 26, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mitch Gould, CEO and founder of Nutritional Products International (NPI), this week introduced Robert Buckley as the company's new executive vice president.

"NPI is looking to expand its operation, and we needed someone with Robert's business background and acumen to oversee it," Gould said. "Robert has owned several successful businesses during the past three decades. He understands the needs of business owners who are looking to expand their distribution network."

Buckley primary responsibilities will be to oversee global operations on a day-to-day basis, as well as product placement into various retail distribution channels.
